ABOUT MERRI

Merri Jones I has worked in IT since 1995 and has seen many changes in the field. Over her career she has served in many different roles in IT, but the one that has resonated the most with her personality and skill set is Project Management. Over the past 20 years, Merri has had the privilege of being involved in many industries and companies: Retail (Nike), Aerospace (Boeing/Lockheed), Healthcare (Kaiser Permanente & BlueCross BlueShield), Financial Services (Aviva & Janus Capital), and Professional Services (Webfortis), with a focus on application development and infrastructure.

Since 2012, she has successfully completed the design & implementation of two new Project Management Offices (one including Agile), and is now involved in the re-structure of the Daimler Infrastructure PMO to redefine project principles and practices incorporating Agile, and to eliminate the silos that exist today.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY

"At Intuit, Merri pulled together a diverse team with varied skills and personalities, and kept it on track throughout the release of a TurboTax product under tight deadlines. She has excellent project/tech skills, plus the requisite soft skills that get the job done. She cares about a quality end product, and jumps right in to troubleshoot and solve problems as needed." -Kristin Ewald, Editor, Intuit

"Are you interested in having a technical resource who is knowledgeable, professional, and dedicated to results? Merri Jones is the ideal person for your team. I have had the extreme delight of working with Merri for many years, and each assignment together has been a pleasure -- for me, our company, and most important...for our customers. She is an asset for any organization. She gets things done...and does it very well. She's one of the best!" -Connie Plowman, VP Cadence Management Corp.
