ABOUT JERMAINE

My name is Jermaine Scales. I am a 44 year old African American male who loves IT. My high school guidance counselor told me that the key to enjoying a career was to find a way to do get someone to pay you to do what you love.

I have been lucky enough to make that a reality in my life. My career has allowed me to work on other continents, meet amazing people and witness advances in technology and opportunity that my parents and grandparents could only dream about.

In addition to this, I have a wonderful wife and two amazing children that make my personal life as happy as my professional one.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY

"Jermaine is a critical thinker. He has a unique gift of being able to take items that on the surface appear not to have any association and link them together in a solution focused manner. He also has a real skill of being connected to people. He makes time each day to engage and interact regularly with others on the floor and makes time to speak with them as needed. He is able to deliver any news in a direct manner without being biased or being drawn into an emotional discourse in a problematic discussion." -Todd Holden

PERSONAL SLOGAN: "ALL OF US ARE SMARTER THAN ANY ONE OF US"
