ABOUT GREG

Prior to joining ChenMed as Director of Product Management, Greg Archer led the product management and user experience teams for PremierConnect, an industry-leading collaboration platform. He began his career with SunHealth in 1991 in corporate planning and has held leadership positions in planning, corporate administration, technology development and operations, change management, product management, and marketing.

Greg's strengths include improving processes, increasing staff efficiency, analyzing customers, developing apps, and increasing satisfaction of customers.

Greg holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University and a masters in Health Administration from Duke University. Greg has chaired the Premier Chief Information Officer Forum in Charlotte for five years and he has been recognized internally and externally as a pacesetter and innovator in the use of technologies for collaboration.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE TO SAY

"With his unwavering support for UX, Greg brought stability to our practice through his leadership and strategic thinking. He is also full of positive energy, which is always welcome. He is passionate and excited about his work, transforming healthcare. Greg is a pleasure to work with and I would do so again without hesitation."

PERSONAL SLOGAN: "GOOD, BETTER, BEST. NEVER LET IT REST UNTIL YOUR GOOD IS BETTER AND YOUR BETTER IS BEST."
