ABOUT MARY

Mary McIntire has worked in the Tennessee state government for over 30 years. She started her long career with the state of Tennessee as an analyst. From there she moved into the Project Management Department where she worked her way up to PMO Manager.

Currently, Mary works as a ScrumMaster for TN Comptroller of the Treasury where she is the extremely successful and happy with her current situation. Mary is a Certified PMP, Certified ScrumMaster, and Certified Product Owner. Her knowledge of Scrum has been instrumental in the overall Agile implementation that is taking place within the Tennessee Treasury office.

Outside of the office, Mary and her husband are both Chief Instructors at Nashville Aikido. Mary holds the rank of Godan and trained directly with Saotome Shihan in Sarasota, FL. She was honored by Saotome Shihan with the designation Ueshiba Juku. This honor is awarded to selected senior students and instructors in recognition of their loyalty and dedication to building ASU and promoting O Sensei's vision. It declares that they are not only true deshi (direct disciples) of Saotome Sensei and inheritors of his teachings, but are also part of O Sensei's own school and pure lineage as only a true Uchi Deshi of O Sensei can recognize.
