ABOUT JUSTIN

After studying theatre at the University of Montevallo, Justin began his career in sales and marketing. He moved between several roles for the first few years until landing in banking at Regions (commercial lending). At Regions, Justin served as a business analysis and then itransitioned nto business intelligence before taking his first management role. He also supervised corporate lending services.

Justin left Regions to join Sterne Agee where he supervised cash management and securities lending. However, after only six short months, Regions recruited Justin to return as a project manager working exclusively on an enterprise Salesforce (CRM) implementation and leading a team of system administrators and business analysts.

Justin joined ProAssurance in 2015 as Operations Manager. Currently he is responsible for MS Dynamics CRM and the ADVANCE! organizational change management program. Besides holding a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Montevallo, Justin also holds a Certificate in Information Systems/Project Management from UAB.
