ABOUT LAURIE

Laurie Holloway is a seasoned professional with over 16 years of employment with Grow Financial Federal Credit Union. Throughout her career with Grow Financial, Laurie has served in various roles in Operations with responsibilities such as support of projects at the executive level. After receiving her ScrumMaster certification in March, she has genuinely adopted the Agile mindset and wants to help others see the benefits of incorporating it into their operations. Laurie enjoys the inner workings of groups as each individual's talents and strengths meld together to form one cohesive unit. She looks forward to transitioning into a ScrumMaster role for a sustainable, pilot/proof in concept team in the near future. Laurie earned a BA in Communications and specialized in Interpersonal and Organizational Communication. She also graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of South Florida.
